

Voltaire Foundation Lecture Series in Digital Scholarship 2024

Digital Enlightenment Studies: Methods and Approaches

15 February 2024

Linacre College, Meeting Suite, 17:00–19:00

Tobias Hodel (University of Bern)

Handwritten Text Recognition – Human-Machine Interaction in the Humanities

7 March 2024

Linacre College, Tanner Room, 17:00–19:00

Katherine McDonough (Lancaster University)

Enlightenment Infrastructure: Making Digital Tools to Explore Historical Places

2 May 2024

Blackwell Hall, Weston Library, 17:00–19:00

First Annual Voltaire Foundation Lecture on Digital Enlightenment Studies

Glenn Roe (Sorbonne University & University of Oxford)

The Poetics of Text Reuse: Digital Intertextuality in the Eighteenth-century Archive

23 May 2024

Linacre College, Tanner Room, 17:00–19:00

Maciej Eder (Polish Academy of Sciences)

Stylometry (Title TBC)

The lecture series is organised by the Voltaire Foundation in collaboration with DiSc & Linacre College.
If you have any questions about the series, contact katarzyna.kapitan@voltaire.ox.ac.uk

The first issue of our new open access journal,
Digital Enlightenment Studies is out and freely available online:
digitalenlightenmentstudies.org
Contact des@voltaire.ox.ac.uk if you'd like to contribute.

